A. In determining whether a residential customer who has not previously had electric service with Central Valley Electric Cooperative, Inc. (CVEC) has an acceptable credit rating, CVEC shall consider the following:

1. Documentation that the residential customer owns or is purchasing the residence served;
2. Documentation that the residential customer has an adequate income;
3. Documentation that the residential customer has an adequate credit reference from a utility where the residential customer had prior utility service;
4. Documentation obtained by the utility from a commercial credit source; or

X

5. Any other reasonable documentation.

B. If a prospective residential customer cannot establish an acceptable credit rating but previously received utility service under the name of a spouse, CVEC may consider prior utility service to that spouse in determining whether and in what amount a security deposit will be charged.
